PREPARING FOR YOUR VISIT

Building Excitement

Posting signs and flyers around the school to spread the word that the author is coming helps build excitement throughout the school. Other ways to help build excitement is to send a flyer and book order form home with students several weeks in advance and invite parents to attend. Counselors, librarians and classroom teachers can prepare by going to www.delisawoods.com and checking out Delisa's biography. Students are generally more excited and engaged on the day of the visit if they have been informed about the author.

Paperwork and Administration details

Please make sure to complete and return the booking form/contract as soon as possible to info@delisawoods.com order to officially book your author visit and confirm the date (s) of the visit. The form can be found at www.delisawoods.com under school visits. If you have any questions about confirming a visit or completing the booking form, please email Delisa at info@delisawoods.com

Schedule, Space and Tech Needs

Standard presentations are typically 45 minutes for grades 2-5 and between 20-30 minutes for Kindergarten and first grade students. For any large-group setting, it is best to schedule the gym or auditorium. Delisa will need a microphone, projector (with sound capability) and a large screen. Please keep an aisle in the middle so Delisa can call up volunteers, walk through the crowd and invite teachers to participate in the presentation.

Ordering Books

Author visits that include book-signing events create much enthusiasm and excitement.

Option 1: Books can be ordered well in advance so that no money will have to be exchanged during the author visit. (Please see book order form attached)

Option 2: Books can be purchased the day of the author visit.
